

Fresenius Kabi Oncology Ltd - Vigil Mechanism Policy

1. Introduction

Fresenius Kabi Oncology Limited (hereafter referred to as "FKOL" or "Company") believes in promoting a fair, transparent, ethical, and professional work environment. While the FKOL code of conduct defines the expectations and a to do list from employees in terms of their integrity and professional conduct, the vigil mechanism defines the mechanism for reporting deviations and wrongful conduct from the standards defined in the code.

Vigil Mechanism is the platform, on which FKOL's employees can come together and help the organization eliminate any wrongful conduct.

2. Purpose

- i. To allow and encourage our employees and Directors to bring to the management's notice concerns about suspected unethical behaviour, wrongful conduct, fraud, violation of the Company's Policies, including Code of Conduct, violation of law or questionable Accounting or Auditing matters by any employee/ director in the company (hereinafter referred to as Wrongful Conduct) without fear of reprisal as provided in Section 177 (9) and (10) of the Companies Act, 2013 and the rules made thereunder.
- ii. To ensure timely and consistent organizational response and thereby ensuring complete transparency in the organization.
- iii. To prohibit initiation of adverse action against an employee or Director as a result of the employee's good faith disclosure of alleged wrongful conduct.
- iv. To build and strengthen a culture of transparency, disclosures without any fear and trust in the organization.

3. Definitions

Definitions of some of the key terms used in this mechanism are given below:

- a. Protected disclosure: Any communication made in good faith that discloses or furnishes evidence of any fraud or unethical activity within the company.
- b. Whistleblower: An individual who makes a protected disclosure under this mechanism. This could be an Employee or Director of FKOL.
- c. Audit Committee: An audit committee is an operating committee formed by the Board of Directors in accordance with Section 177 of the Companies Act 2013.
- d. Code of Conduct: A set of rules outlining the responsibilities of or proper practices for an individual, party or organization. In this case, it refers to FKOL's "Code of Conduct for business ethics and compliances".
- e. Empowered Official: Designated employee(s) of the company, who is authorized to receive and initiate action on whistleblower complaints.
- f. Investigators: Selected employees or third parties charged with conducting investigations to ascertain the creditability of such whistleblower complaints.
- g. Subject: means a person against whom, or in relation to whom a Protected Disclosure is made.

4. Guiding principles of the vigil mechanism

To ensure effective implementation of vigil mechanism, the company shall:

- a. Ensure complete confidentiality of the whistleblower identity and the information provided by him/her.
- b. Ensure protection of the whistleblower against victimization for the disclosures made by him/her.
- c. Ensure that the protected disclosure is acted upon within specified timeframes and no evidence is concealed or destroyed.
- d. Ensure that the investigation is conducted honestly, neutrally and in an unbiased manner.
- e. Ensure the subject or other involved persons in relation with the protected disclosure be given an opportunity to be heard.
- f. Ensure disciplinary actions are taken against the subject, if complaint found in order and anyone who conceals or destroys evidence related to protected disclosures made under this mechanism.

5. Protection for whistleblower

- a. The identity of the whistleblower will be kept anonymous and confidential to the extent possible, unless required by law or in legal proceedings.
- b. A whistleblower reporting issues related to sexual harassment, child labour, discrimination, violation of human rights would necessarily need to disclose their identity to enable effective investigation.
- c. Any other employee serving as witness or assisting in the said investigation would also be protected to the same extent as the whistleblower.
- d. The Audit Committee would safeguard the whistleblower from any adverse action. This includes discrimination, victimization, retaliation, demotion, termination, or adoption of any unfair employment practices.
- e. Protection under this mechanism would not mean protection from disciplinary action arising out of false allegations made by a whistleblower.
- f. A whistleblower may not be granted protection under this mechanism if he/she is subject of a separate complaint, or allegations related to any misconduct.
- g. If a complainant believes that she or he has been treated adversely as a consequence of use of the vigil mechanism, can approach the Chairman of the Audit Committee of Fresenius Kabi Oncology Ltd. The contact information for the Chairman of the Audit Committee is provided at Appendix - A to this document.
